

It won't get your shirts whiter, your breath fresher or your engine to run cleaner...

but membership in the Ad Club of Maine will help you:

Get connected - We are Maine's ONLY professional/trade organization for the ad industry, so if you're interested in meeting the movers and shakers, we're the place to be.

Get smarter - With special educational seminars throughout the year, we get the inside scoop from some of today's most interesting and innovative marketing professionals.

Get awards - You don't have to join the Ad Club to enter or attend the prestigious Broderson Awards for creative excellence - but it will sure save you a few bucks if you're a member.

Get involved - As the voice of the advertising community in Augusta, the Ad Club plays an important role policing and shaping legislative issues that impact our business community here in Maine.

Get discounts - on everything from social events and educational seminars to Broderson award entries (which, if you've got a lot to show off, can mean big savings!).

Get ADWEEK half off - now that's some serious pocket change!

New Features: Get more—Our biweekly newsletter will help you stay current, with highlights of upcoming events, member profiles, news, links and more—the 411 you won't find anywhere else, with a local twist. And new recruits can take advantage of our New Member Buddy Program, to help you get connected in the Ad Club during your first few months.

So get in the Club today!

Visit us at www.maineadclub.com to download membership forms, check out our calendar of events and get all the latest local advertising news.

